The rest of me

Growing up in Argentina, I like to think that I bring a unique blend of adaptability, resilience, and resourcefulness to everything I do, probably caused by a lifetime of economic crisis and inflation.

In my free time, I love to read, watch movies and TV shows and learn about space and science. I also live my life with the constant presence of music, inherited from my parents who ensured my life had a beautiful soundtrack from the very beginning and also gave me some decent guitar and piano playing skills.

I'm always seeking out new challenges and experiences, whether it's exploring a new city or learning a new skill.

I believe that I have a friendly, respectful, and funny personality. And while I take my work seriously, I don't take myself too seriously. After all, life is too short not to have a little bit of fun along the way.
